

PROFILE OF WORLANYO KWADJO SIABI

Worlanyo Kwadjo Siabi was born in 1966. He is a Civil Engineer with specialization in water system design and water safety. He has MSc degree in Water Supply and Environmental Engineering and MBA in Management. He worked in the WASH Sector alone in 24 years. In 2015, he was honored with a State Award “Member of the Order of the Volta” by his country Ghana, for his contributions to the development of Ghana. He is currently the Chief Executive of the Community Water and Sanitation Agency, a public institution responsible for Rural WASH in Ghana.