

BUKOLA EHIMATIE- BIODATA

Email – babstaiye@yahoo.com

GSM - +2348036502038

LinkedIn - <https://www.linkedin.com/in/bukolaehimatie001177/>

Bukola Ehimatie is a seasoned Development Specialist, and she brings more than 17 years of technical and leadership experience in planning, monitoring and evaluation support to development programs. She has successfully worked with various international organizations in establishing and leading implementation of practical Monitoring, Evaluation, Accountability and Learning (MEAL) systems, including supporting USAID funded and Global Fund projects, in public health and WASH interventions.

Bukola is an internationally certified Project Management Professional for Development sectors and has been involved in the analysis of WASH sector data in Nigeria; for progress assessment, strategy review, accountability, learning, including the conduct of data verification, validation, data quality assessments and continuous quality improvement, using standard checklists and tools, establishment of data management systems, development of Standard Operating Procedures, training of relevant institutions staff in Monitoring, Evaluation and Learning, strengthening performance sector monitoring and benchmarking systems.

Bukola Ehimatie, an award recipient of Research Triangle Institute in North Carolina, for actively supporting the organization's strategic imperatives on the ongoing WASH project with USAID, currently leads the ongoing USAID effort in strengthening performance sector monitoring and benchmarking systems for Federal Ministry of Water Resources, Water Utilities of 5 States and 17 WASH Civil Society Organizations (CSOs) in Nigeria, through establishment of data management systems, development of Standard Operating Procedures and training of relevant institutions staff in Monitoring, Evaluation and Learning.